Sicilian Evening with Ursula Ferrigno

Thursday 24th January 2019, £60 per person includes two glasses of matched wine

Ursula is an acclaimed and experienced food writer and chef who embodies the Italian passion for good food made with the freshest ingredients and also with a hefty 18 books to her name! Ursula teaches all our Italian classes at the Jericho Kitchen.

"The food of Sicily is like the people – warm, generous, unexpected and comforting. It has one of the world's best cuisines thanks to the complex influences and fusion of flavours left behind by the Greeks, Romans, Arabs, Normans and Spanish who at some point occupied this beautiful island.

To incorporate all these influences I have put together a very regional menu which I know will bring Sicily and all its vibrant beauty and life to Branca on a cold January evening!"
